Drawing Lessons

"EVERYBODY CAN LEARN HOW TO DRAW "

Designed as 3 x 10 week terms, this is a starter course for kids and adults to help them fall in love with drawing: covering the basic foundations to the ability to finish works with resolution and style.

Course 1: Learning to see. Establishing a sense of simple forms and relationships, working toward the most revered simple form of all, the human head.

Course 2: Places and spaces. Bringing it all together to create moods, feelings and patterns of meaning, focusing on trees, hills, clouds and perspective drawing. Course 3: The Figure.

Developing skills to analyse and imagine objects to a complex degree, focusing on the ultimate object, the human figure: making good use of artistic anatomy, the great masters and the live model.

Over the last 20 years as a professional sculptor, creating prominent public work across Australia and as a leading portrait sculptor, Daniel has continually returned to drawing as the core skill behind his work. Connected to a line of teachers going back to Manet and the famous Académie Julian of Paris, and from 20 years experience teaching, Daniel has created a simple program that captures the best creative techniques, bottled into a simple well ordered curriculum. This is the perfect preliminary course for students pursuing a design-based profession, for kids looking for something constructive to play with or for anyone to simply fall in love with creativity.
